

My Heartily Wishes, May lovely 2017 makes you a brand NEW!

BIG 5!

Believe, accept or adopt:

I am the creator of my 2017. Nothing happens to me by itself, except deteriorate, I am responsible; not people nor gods. They have done their best & it's my time to do my best.

Arrive at a mission statement:

Which excites, stretches and makes me better each day. Strength to do more comes from clarity of purpose. Haziness produce laziness.

Wheel of life:

Life is not just few dollars. I daily reconnect with holistic view of my life viz., Health, Wealth, Family, Career, Social, Hobbies, Spirituality and Legacy.

Be organized and simplify:

No point gathering all things or to be good everywhere. 80% changes in life can be brought by 20% transformation. Know what matters, what works. I sleep alone in my grave.

Attitude of gratitude:

I thank nature, appreciate people, team and bosses for their whole hearted support and belief in my ability to give back ten folds which they have bestowed in me, the knowledge, courage and wisdom.

Live by Heart!
